CITY'S OLDEST NATIVE SON.

Postmaster John W. Breathitt Celebrates His 81st Birthday.

LONG AND USEFUL LIFE.

Still in Hale and Active Health, Performing Daily Duties.

Maj. John W. Breathitt, the Postmaster of this city, celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary Tuesday. He is the oldest living native born citizen of Hopkinsville. He was born in 1825 in the Hopson house still standing on the corner of Main and Tenth streets. Except for a while that he lived on a farm, he has always been a resident of Hopkinsville and has filled many positions of honor and trust.

He fought during the entire war as a captain and later as a major in the Union army. After the war he was Deputy Marshal, then County Court Clerk for about 20 years and then County Judge for four years. He was appointed postmaster in 1896 and is now serving his third term.

Hale and hearty, active in body and in the full possession of all his faculties, he still attends to his daily duties at the post-office, honored and respected by the whole population of his native city. If good wishes of his friends will prolong his life, he has still ahead of him many more years of usefulness.

THROUGH TRAIN

Service Inaugurated Between Chicago and Florida.

The Chicago and Florida Limited, which will be operated over the L. & N. through this city, has been inaugurated, and the first train passed through here at 11:52 Monday night, enroute to St. Augustine.

The train leaves Chicago over the C. & E. I., and is delivered to the L. & N. at Evansville by the E. & T. H. road. The first North-bound train left St. Augustine Wednesday, passing through here this morning, and will arrive in Chicago this afternoon. This is merely a resumption of through winter service between Chicago and Florida, which was operated last winter. The train is just about as it was last year, with some improvement in conveniences.

The arrest made by the police for using profane language ought to be an eye-opener for all men who have gotten into the habit of swearing without knowing it.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MOVE

Effort On Foot to Resuscitate The Sleeping Body.

MANY ADVANTAGES.

City On The Eve of Great Boom in Business.

An effort is being made to revive the Commercial Club, which has been inactive for three years. Mr. H. H. Abernathy, who was secretary, has had many inquiries of late, some from large business concerns seeking locations. High rentals and high taxes in the large manufacturing cities of the north and east, and the long hauls and freight rates incident thereto are causing the manufacturers to seek new sites for their plants as never before in the history of the country. The enormous quantity of the South has grown to such enormous proportions that it is now looked upon as the richest commercial field in the world, and practically all the manufacturing activity of the Southern States is turning to the South.

Hopkinsville has perhaps more natural advantages than any other point in the south. The city railroads and Commercial Club advertised its advantages far and wide and the great number of inquiries pouring in from manufacturers is a direct result of this advertising. The good work must be kept up. The Commercial Club intends that it shall be. A special effort is now making to induce the business men not identified with the Club heretofore to come in and help. The grandest measure of success can be achieved only by the united co-operation of all. With this co-operation it is now a certainty that Hopkinsville will be able to show a greater percentage of growth and business activity during the coming year than any other city in the State of like size. The dues paid by the commercial club are very small while the advantages derived by the individual members are valuable and lasting. What is needed most at this opportune moment is the enthusiasm that comes from united effort in a meritorious cause.

A citizen who does a large business here was asked Wednesday forenoon to join the commercial club. He replied that he could not afford to devote enough time to the work to make his services worth while. The gentleman who had solicited his membership asked him how, with his interest, he could afford to knock the town by the example of not joining. He admitted the justice of the observation, and directed his name to be enrolled, for, said he, "Even if I can't be an active booster I will at least not be a passive knocker."

Hopkinsville has never had so great an opportunity as at this time to secure desirable factories. The commercial club invites the help of every public spirited citizen of the town. When the committee calls on you to become a member it will be well to bear in mind that the present opportunities will not come again, and that unless we pull together now, next year we will see another town enjoying the trade we could have secured.

A Mistake.

The statement recently made in the Paducah Register that Miss Brown, of Paducah, had been appointed official stenographer of this District was a mistake as far as Christian county is concerned. Mrs. Ethel Everett, who was appointed by the Circuit Judge at the beginning of this term, will continue to discharge the duties of that responsible position.

METHODIST REVIVAL.

Interest Increasing and Attendance Large.

The revival services, which were begun at the Methodist church last Sunday, are increasing in interest. The attendance grows larger each night. Tuesday night the large audience room was about three-fourths full. Rev. P. H. Davis is a most earnest and interesting speaker and holds the closest attention of his audience at all times.

Wednesday night Mr. Davis' theme was "Bearing Witness." He took his text from the first chapter of Hebrews and delivered a most powerful sermon. The Christians were deeply impressed and the earnest words of the speaker called tears from many of his hearers. The stay of Dr. Davis, as we previously stated, is not limited to any particular time, and the indications are that much good will be done here.

BROUGHT $1,200.

R. M. Anderson Paid That Amount for E. M. Moss' Stock.

The bicycle, gun and sportsman's stock of E. Munsey Moss, on East Sixth street, was sold yesterday morning at public auction. It was first offered in classes and then as a whole. Bidding was quite lively from start to finish, especially when the stock was put up as a whole. Mr. R. M. Anderson was the highest bidder and the stock was knocked off to him at $1,200.

The Kidneys

When they are weak, torpid, or stagnant, the whole system suffers. Don't neglect them at this time, but heed the warning of the aching back, the bloated face, the sallow complexion, the urinary disorder, and begin treatment at once with Hood's Sarsaparilla which contains the best, and safest, curative substances. For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Kidneys, No. 2, C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

It is said that Henry George is slated to succeed Eph Lillard as warden of the Frankfort penitentiary. Henry Hagerman will hold on as warden at Eddyville, while Jesse Olive, who lined up with the Blackburn crowd as a candidate for prison commissioner, will lose his place as assistant warden.

The season men of St. Cloud, Minn., have ordered Maj. or Benzel to leave town and stay until his term of office expires, on account of his attempt to "put the lid on." He left for Mexico, where he has business to attend to.

There were six highway robberies in Louisville between December 23 and Jan. 7th. The seventh attempt was made Sunday night, but J. P. Cunningham, who was held up, escaped fire and fatally shot one of the robbers, who was found to be Frank Jones, aged 21 years.

RAILROAD RACKET.

Contract to Be Let for Grading for More Switching Room Here.

Mr. John W. Logsdon, superintendent of the Henderson division of the L. & N., was in the city yesterday. We learned that Mr. Logsdon's purpose in coming was to let the contract for grading the proposed increase of side trackage here. This work is to be pushed as rapidly as possible, as the large increase in business at this place absolutely demands it.

In addition to this the L. & N. will put in a complete block system on this division. We are told that the L. & N. is now running passenger trains almost every hour from Nortonville to Madisonville, and the company has already a block system between those points and have ten telegraph operators employed in its operation.

One of our prominent business men remarked a few days since that our citizens ought to get together and appoint a committee to wait on the proper officials of both roads and make an effort to bring about a change in the present schedules. The time of arrival and departure of trains is causing our merchants the loss of a good deal of trade they enjoyed before the new schedule of the roads went into effect. We are not disposed to meddle in the matter, but it would doubtless be wise to make the move suggested. Urgency is on the trial of terms with the officials of both roads, and we have no doubt that such a suggestion would meet with favorable consideration.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

Being Observed by the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church is holding its annual week of prayer services in the interest of foreign missions. At this time their Christmas offering for China is made. Every woman in the church is invited to attend these meetings at 2 p. m. each day and, as far as possible, have a share in this special gift.

The meeting this (Thursday) afternoon will be led by Mrs. E. M. Plack. Let all the ladies come with an item on the work of the three boards of the Southern Baptist Convention—Foreign, Home and Sunday School.

Friday afternoon Mrs. J. H. Anderson will lead. Saturday afternoon Miss Lizzie Downer will be the leader.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society will hold a similar meeting in the early spring in behalf of home missions, which covers, not only our State work, etc., but our Southland and Cuba.

REAL SPOOKS.

Neerly a Scare Swoop Down on Hotel Latham

JAMES YOUNG TO WED

Hopkinsville Bachelors Outwitted by Fun-Loving Young Ladies.

In a panel on one of the walls of the lobby of Hotel Latham is part of the following Scriptural injunction:

"Be not unkind to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."

Captain Whitlow is particularly fond of angels, and he and his estimable wife gladly took under their care and keeping a bevy of femininity bordering on the angelic last Friday night when they made their appearance in the ladies' waiting-room of that popular hostelry.

A quintette of young bachelors, on fun and mystery bent (the small number may lead one to think them selfish), had organized a club composed entirely of themselves. They called their organization the "Eaton Club" (which, being translated into English, means Eat on), and had made arrangements to feel a series of invited guests. The highly select club had sent formal invitations to certain young ladies to attend something at the hotel, stating that escorts would be provided.

Some, if not all, of those invited had seen Laurant at the Tabernacle two nights before, and probably had not forgotten Mrs. Laurant's very "mysterious" disappearance from the casket and the flickering flames that arose from the box in which she had been enclosed. So, amid their cogitations and talks over the phone, they realizing that leap-year is still two years off, and determined to even up with the bachelors—everyone of whom is able to take good care of a wife—fixed up, a scheme of their own that might scare some of the timid bachelors out of their wits, and thus lead them to "propose"—as none of them would have been accepted, it didn't matter whom of the eighteen might be the "lucky" ones.

At the conventional hour the five bachelors started out to take their invited guests to the banquetting place, but upon arriving at their homes found that the young ladies were "not at home," and then betook themselves to the handsome parlors of the hotel, wondering what was to be the outcome of their secret arrangements. Soon eighteen spooks, with human forms, made their appearance, wrapped in sheets wound about them, concealing their faces. Not a word was spoken by the ghostly assemblage, and they were seated around the festive board. When the first course was laid the spooks threw aside the imaginary habiliments of the spirit world, and the ghostly guests, with the dexterity of a Laurant, were transformed into angels, minus the wings, and faces radiant with fun and bright eyes sparkling with the success of their coup.

It was truly an Eat-on feast, for as fast as one course was disposed of the angelic guests moved to the fine tables one after another until they had gone round the entire board.

Then came the post-feast speech, "Acknowledging the Corn" by the hosts, and other features, which made the first evening of the Eat-on club never to be forgotten. The other four tried to make the fair guests believe that only the aim to force Jim Young to marry had prompted them to the desperate effort that had been made. The guests took this assurance with "a good deal of water" and do not think that the popular young man had been "tricked" by his brother members. However the trick worked so well that Mr. Young then and there promised to marry during the year if one of the angels present would have him.

The following young ladies were

GAME LAW.

When Rabbits and Squirrels May Be Shot.

Although much has been written recently concerning the game laws of the state, there still seems to be a misunderstanding regarding the rights of hunters to shoot rabbits and squirrels. It is unlawful to kill rabbits and squirrels from September 15 to November 15. The object of prohibiting shooting between the dates mentioned is to prevent the killing of quail. The open season for rabbits extends from November 15 to September 15—ten months of the year. The open seasons for squirrels extends from November 15 to February 15, and from June 15 to September 15. Squirrels, when caught depredating upon crops, can be killed at any time. Quail shooting is lawful only six weeks in the year, from Nov. 15 to Jan. 1. Rabbits may be caught with dogs or in snares at any time.

DIVIDEND PAYING Oil and Mining Stocks

Other high grade 6 per cent. guaranteed interest preferred stocks and bonds for sale. OSAI Oil Co. will sell 10,000 shares of its 6 per cent. guaranteed interest preferred stock at $10.00 per share. This is a very good price. Well No. 11, Lease No. 11, has been drilled and is flowing. This makes it well independent of No. 12, on June 17, owned by the four Companies, drilled without a single "dry hole."

The four Oil Companies owning the above wells have returned to stock holders during the year in monthly dividends, the sum of $100,000, against an actual investment in property and development of approximately $200,000, with a handsome surplus yet remaining in their own hands for the future.

Withdrawal of oil stock of the four companies has been entirely withdrawn from the market. An announcement will probably be made no later than January 15, of the entire withdrawal from the market of the stock of the Interstate Oil & Petroleum Co., which will begin dividends in January at the same rate as the other four Oil Companies. This Company has demonstrated by its four well already brought in that it has an oil-bearing capacity, with development, equal to or in excess of the four Oil Companies companies operating in the Marysville District, and it has a surplus in its profit fund of practically $1,000 at the present time available for dividends. Any customer desiring to secure this stock will have to send in their subscription prior to the date of its withdrawal.

The Interstate Oil & Petroleum Co. now has in its profit fund approximately $1,000, against an investment in the property and development of some of over $200,000, which we think is a remarkable record for the oil business.

LADIES' ORCHESTRA

Course Attraction No. 6 at the Tabernacle.

The Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra, course attraction No. 6 at the Tabernacle, will be here Thursday night, Jan. 15. Ladies' orchestras have been important numbers, in fact, headliners in the various lecture and entertainment courses of the country for several seasons past. There have been very few successful ones from every point of view. The question naturally comes, what makes an organization of this kind a success? These points: A thoroughly capable conductor and a well balanced company of musicians. A carefully arranged instrumentation, and constant rehearsals for lights and soundings, to give perfect and artistic musical effects; Soloists of unusual merit, of the kind that can hold their places among the more featured artists of other concert companies. All these points are needed, and more—the company must be composed of ladies, in presenting an orchestra this year, a strong number of soloists under the direction of Alfred Metzendorf, the great Cleveland leader and violin soloist, was selected. It is a company of artistic merit, in which members play no part—not how many people but what kind of artists, has been the idea in arranging this combination.

There is a decided improvement in the street electric lights, for which everybody is giving thanks.

Local Affairs.

The people was thick enough for the boys to skate Tuesday and Wednesday.

Work is in progress day and night putting in the counters and furniture of the new bank.

The drummers are again on the road, and business is picking up at Hotel Latham.

Electric cars are again being talked about more than anything else, and the people are still hoping we will have them.

The health of the people of the city and county is unusually good, and deaths are so infrequent that the undertakers are "looking blue."

The new Chief of the Fire Department is a past Noble Grand of the Order of Odd Fellows and is a member of the popular contracting firm of Hester & Thompson.

The new officers of the Knights of Pythias lodge will be installed at the regular meeting to-night. Mr. J. Will Stowe, the popular young bookkeeper at Forbes', is the in-going Chancellor Commander. He succeeds Capt. Ellis Roper, chief of police.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to punish house-breaking at night, making it a capital offense. If a few teals or shikels of the value of $2 he is sent to the penitentiary for one or five years, and a course fed and clothed for no term of imprisonment. Some people think that the whipping-post law ought to be re-enacted, as 39 stripes on the bare back will do more good than wearing stripes all over him in the "pen."

The new firm will assume all liabilities and collect all accounts, and the business in future will be conducted under the firm name of C. R. Clark & Co. Mr. Cliff A. Clark will give the business his attention and will be assisted by competent salesmen. Mr. Johnson will devote his entire time and attention to the office of Jailer of Christian county.
